Consistency of the language in questions

When capturing data about disability, if you use the following definition it will ensure that your results are more in line with Sport England, Census data and any Activity Alliance research

Do you have a long term health condition or impairment that limits your daily activities?

- Which of the following best describes how your impairment or long term health condition affects you?

- Please select all that apply

  - Vision. (blindness or visual impairment)

  - Hearing. (deafness or hard of hearing)

  - Physical (wheelchair user, mobility issues, amputee, dwarfism)

  - Learning or concentrating or remembering

  - Mental Health problems

  - Social or behavioural issues, for example, due to neurological diverse conditions such as Autism, Attention Deficit or Aspergers' Syndrome

  - Other (including Stamina or breathing difficulty, difficulty speaking or making yourself understood, dexterity difficulties, long term pain)

  - Don't now

  - Prefer not to say

Physical impairment covers a wide range

– if people select this you may want to define it further

- You said that you have a physical impairment, which of the following best describe your physical impairment
- Please select all that apply
    - Manual wheelchair user
    - Electric wheelchair / powerchair user
    - Mobility issues due to imbalance or coordination
    - Mobility issues due to illness or pain
    - Lower limb amputee / congenital limb loss
    - Upper limb amputee / congenital limb loss
    - Dwarfism
    - Long term pain
    - Other (please specify)